Chapter Two

After having a part of our freshman class by a creative summer session we came back to school in September 1934. We lost several members during the twenty-four hour. We elected our class officers for the year as follows: Rogers Wells- President; Louise Lovejoy-Vice President; Gordon Wells-Secretary & Treasurer. Mr. Vizard was again elected as Class Sponsor.

During the year the Sophomore Class was well represented in intramural sports. Three boys on the basketball squad and two girls on the girls' squad were members of the class.

Chapter Three

In September 1935 we entered the door for class #1 [illegible] process. This year we began to realize the true value of our education and set our minds to the task of absorbing the knowledge given us. Our class officers were as follows: Rogers Wells- President; Rudy Urban- Secretary & Treasurer; Mr. Vizard was for the second time elected as Class Sponsor.

On February 14 & 15, 1936 the seniors gave their class play entitled "And Many Did". It was given under the direction of Mr. Vizard.

Basketball Banquet

The coaches of the basketball squad and the members of the eighth grade team were entertained by Mrs. Gerald Vinard with a delicious chicken supper at the High School Building at 6:00 o'clock Friday evening, March 12, 1937.

After supper games of bingo were played and contests were held. Prizes were won by Gordon Nolan, Willis Taylor and Jean Doherty.

At the close of the program Coach Vinard presented the Senior boys, Earl Williamson, Gordon Nolan, Robert McMillan and Robert Wells with athletic awards.
